

*JR. BUCKHORN NEWS 10/11/07
GOOD LUCK TO ALL THE TEAMS THIS WEEK....LET'S GO BUCKS!!

Everyone please be reminded that Jr. Bucks hosts next weeks playoffs, whether we are playing or not...concession workers and baked goods will be needed.

It has been brought to our attention that actions in the stands have been somewhat inappropriate at times so before we move on to game times ALL PARENTS should be reminded of the following code of conduct, which was agreed to and signed at registration. THIS CODE OF CONDUCT APPLIES TO PARENTS AS WELL AS PLAYERS..

Respect: All parents, players and cheerleaders are required to be respectful of each other, all coaches, and other teams. Fighting between parents, players, cheerleaders or coaches will not be tolerated. Booing the opposing team is unacceptable, they are children too.

Missing practices/games: or sitting out on a regular basis when attending practices. Player's/Cheerleader's playing time will be limited. Players/Cheerleaders should arrive on time and be prepared to practice or play. Players/Cheerleaders should attend every practice, game and competition. There are no excused absences unless a medical note is provided

Offensive gestures and/or inappropriate behavior: To an official, coach, player/cheerleader. Player/cheerleader will be removed from the playing field and suspended from play until further notice by the coach. Parents will be banned from any and all future events until further notice.

Offensive language: To an official, coach, cheerleader or player. Player/cheerleader will be removed from the playing field and suspended from play until further notice by the coach. Parents will be asked to leave the game/practice.
